

Press Report

Dover Town Hall was filled with 80 members and guests of the Dover Ladies Luncheon Club on 16th December, tucking into a three course Christmas lunch following a seasonal glass of mulled wine. Elizabeth Weaver serenaded the ladies with Christmas carols. Tradition called for Lesley Gordon to have us scratching our heads to find the answers to her annual quiz. Questions ranged from the Morse Code to knitting pattern instructions - at least that last one was easy. Elizabeth Weaver sent us on our way with a stirring rendition of ".....". Despite the mild weather, with Christmas crackers, turkey, Christmas pudding and mince pies, we knew Christmas was just around the corner.
