Lunch date with actor and writer

A View from the Wings was this month's talk to Dover Luncheon Club by guest speaker Brian Freeland.

Mr Freeland, speaking at Dover Town Hall, has been both actor and stage manager and is now a scriptwriter.

His meeting of countless stars in his career began with a performance by Pete O'Toole at the Old Vic in Bristol.

Mr Freeland's highlights have included being stage manager for the Crazy Gang entertainment troupe and Harry Secombe of The Goons and starring as Humpty Dumpty in a pantomime.

These days he writes scripts and has published a book of stories of his life, Around the World in 80 Plays.

Dover Luncheon Club members will have their Christmas lunch next Wednesday.
